

Please do not permit more media concentration in large corporations. Clear Channel is a good example of a horrible conglomerate that works against free speech.

The very fact that the major broadcast networks have said so little about your proposals for less limits on ownership is a clear indication of their desire for more control. Please protect us from them. We heard a very interesting interview with some hispanics this morning who were worried about the effects of the reduction in the number of independent stations.